

FREDERICK FAIRYTALE

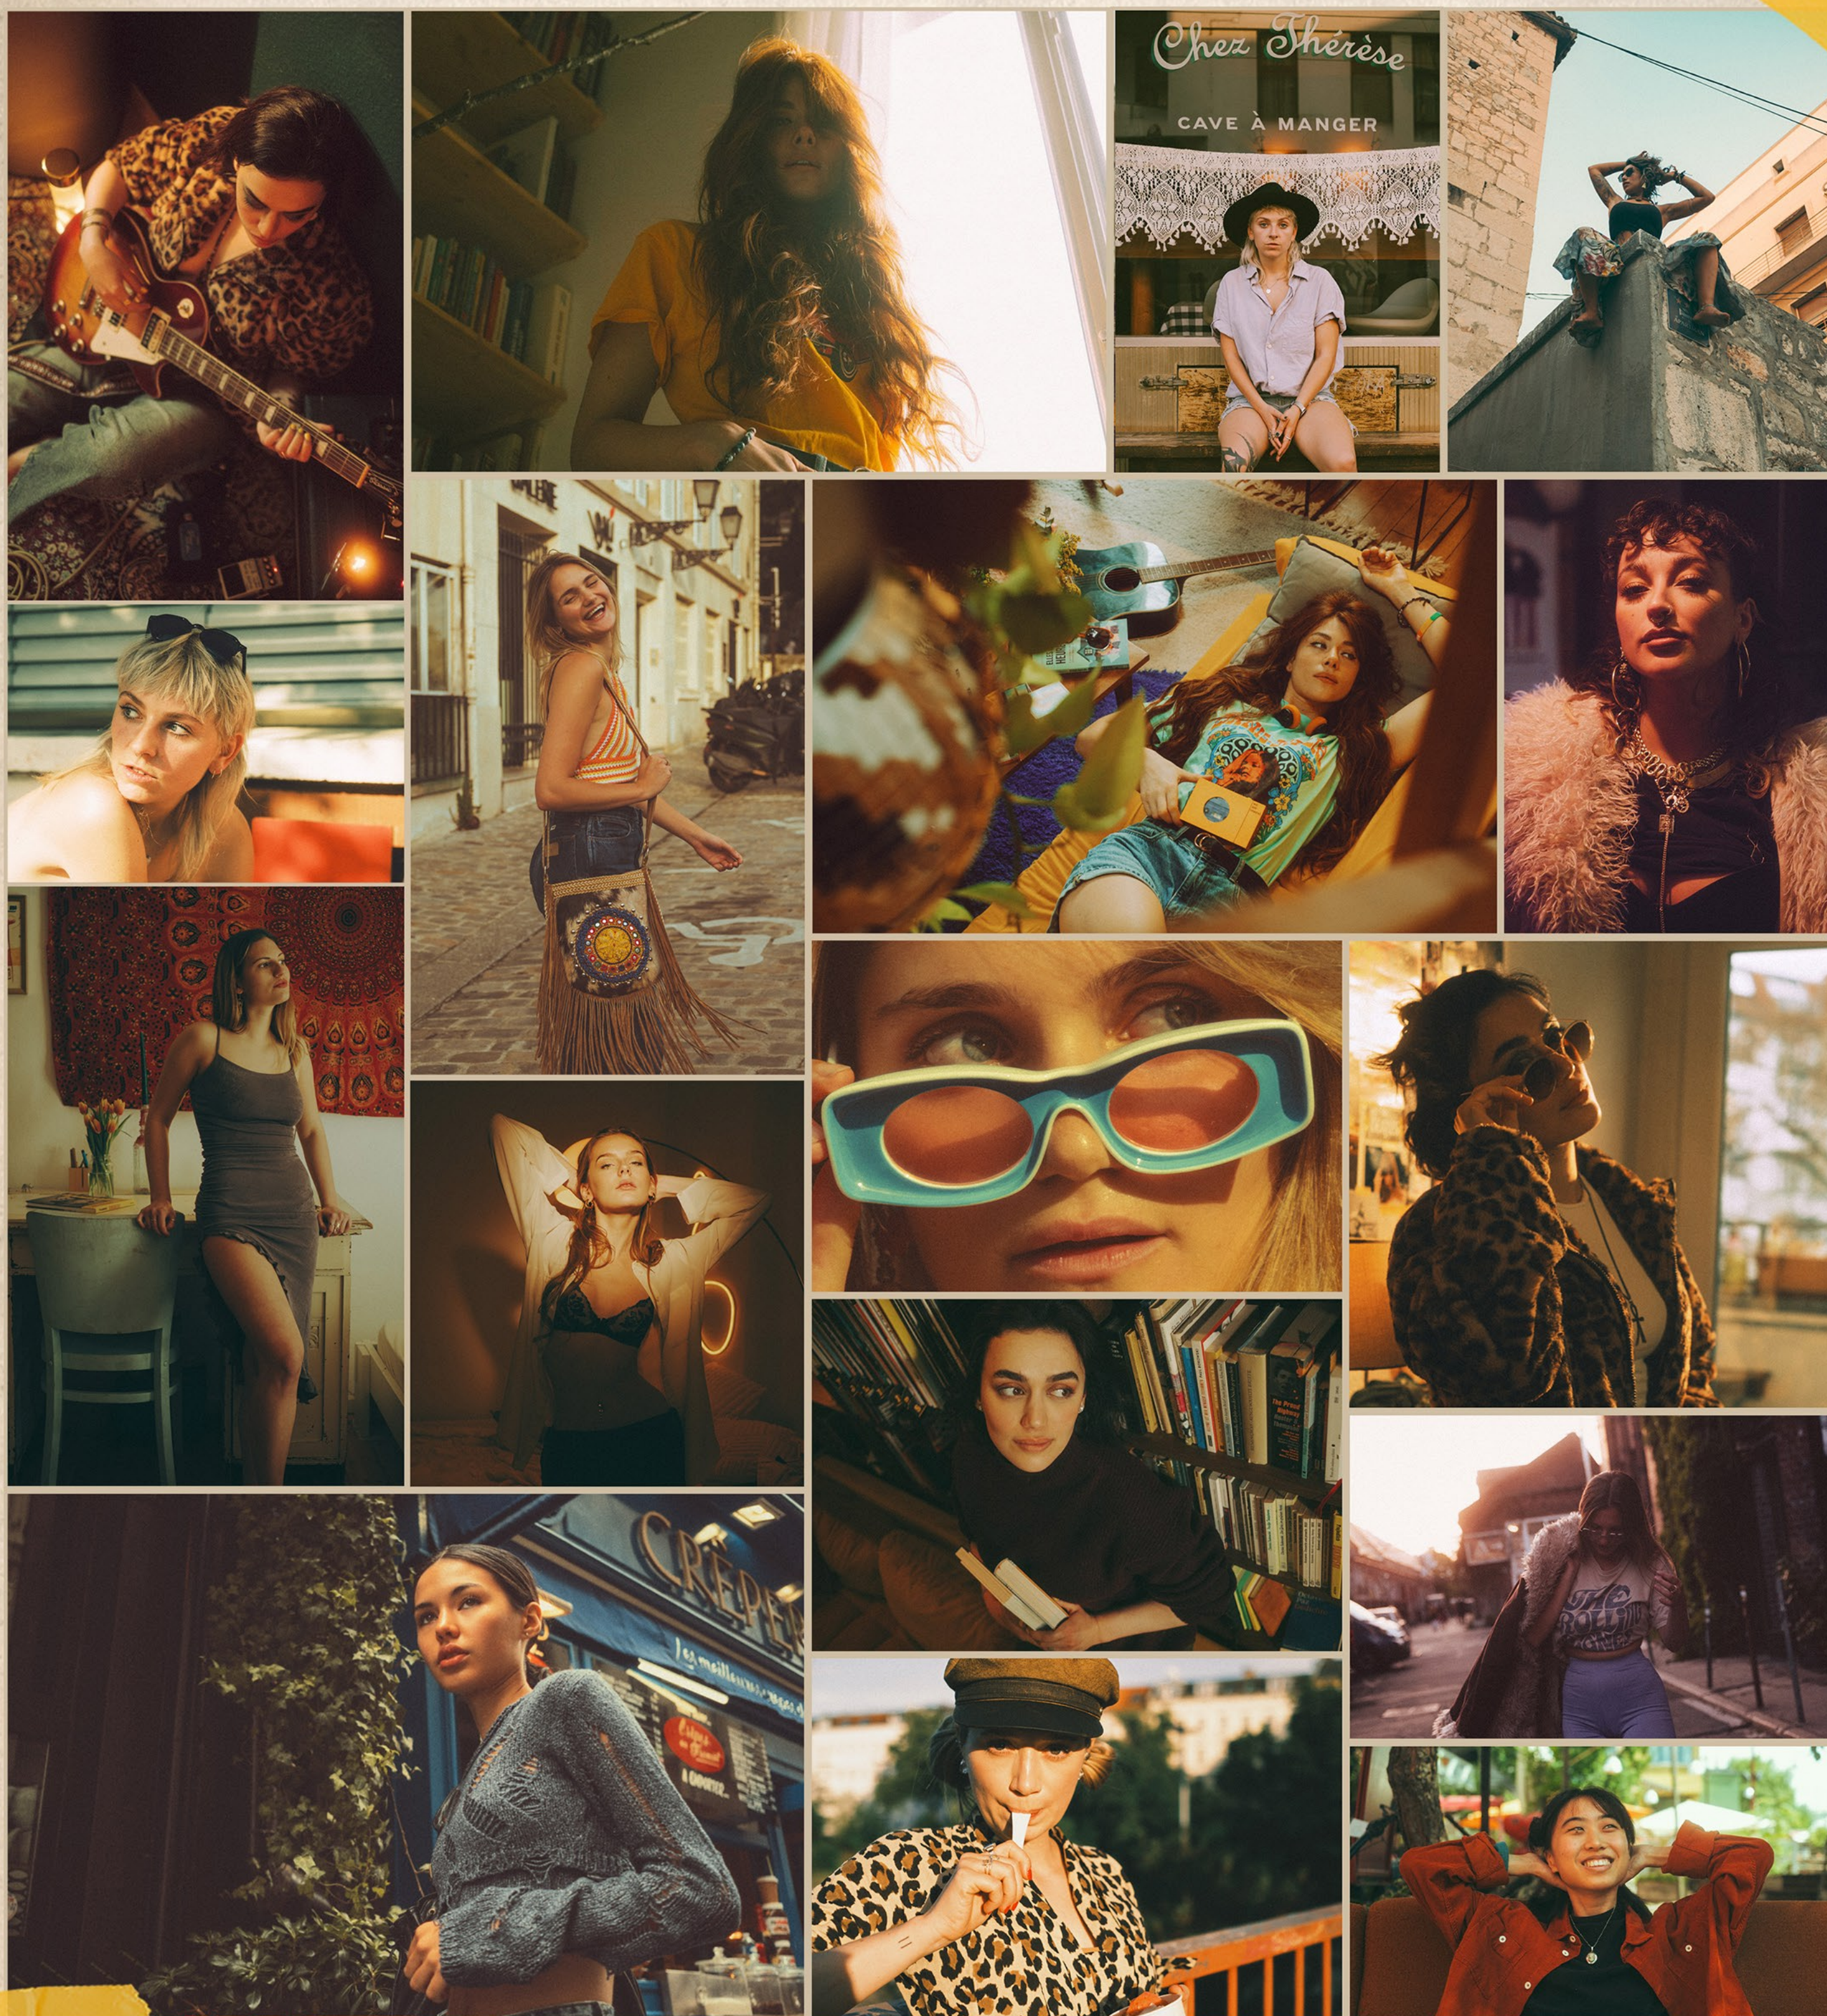

"HIS PHOTOGRAPHY DANCES AT THE CROSSROADS OF TIME, BLURRING BOUNDARIES BETWEEN THE PAST AND THE PRESENT."
- C-HEADS MAGAZINE

I'm known as Frederick Fairytale, a photographer with a taste for nostalgia and an insatiable yearning to live within the vibrant tapestry of the 70s. Imagine me, a true child of Berlin, finding solace in the melodies that once defined an era.

As a photographer, I seek to capture the essence of the 60s & 70s, blending its rhythmic vibes with the modern technology that surrounds us today. A harmonious fusion of the old and the new, my artistry becomes a time portal, an ethereal journey where the echoes of the past converge with the possibilities of the present.

In my pictures, you'll find a mix of colors and shapes that can be quite lively. And I embrace this rich variety because it adds depth and character to each image. I'm a firm believer that a person's essence extends far beyond their bare physical form. Every element that surrounds them, every chord of music that resonates within their soul, paints a vivid portrait of their personality and their very existence.
